

(1) The first section of the report is devoted to a general survey of the situation in the country at the present time. It is found that the country is in a state of general depression and that the people are suffering from want and distress. The cause of this is attributed to the war and the consequent loss of property and the disruption of the normal life of the country.

(2) The second section of the report deals with the question of the relief of the suffering people. It is suggested that the Government should take steps to provide relief to the people in the form of food, clothing, and shelter. It is also suggested that the Government should take steps to provide employment for the people in order that they may be able to support themselves.

(3) The third section of the report deals with the question of the reconstruction of the country. It is suggested that the Government should take steps to reconstruct the country in order that it may be able to support itself and its people. It is also suggested that the Government should take steps to provide education for the people in order that they may be able to support themselves and their families.

(4) The fourth section of the report deals with the question of the future of the country. It is suggested that the Government should take steps to provide for the future of the country in order that it may be able to support itself and its people. It is also suggested that the Government should take steps to provide for the future of the people in order that they may be able to support themselves and their families.
